Opinion

by Stephanie Yeagle

View Author Profile

syeagle@ncronline.org Follow on Twitter at @ncrSLY

Join the Conversation

Send your thoughts to Letters to the Editor. Learn more

August 21, 2018 Share on FacebookShare on TwitterEmail to a friendPrint

Here's what's new at NCRonline.org today:

Labor unions rally in support of immigrants, against child detention

Commentary: Real change against abuse starts with church's clergy/lay structure

Commentary: Why the bishops should welcome invitation to resign

Francis, the comic strip, goes to Ireland. NCR will be there, covering the World Meeting of Families, surrounding events, and the papal visit. Read all the coverage here.

Vatican confirms pope will meet abuse survivors in Ireland

Justice Action Bulletin: Helping immigrants leave sanctuary; affordable housing

Eco Catholic: Cloves -- mountain passes, not the spice -- make passage easy

Soul Seeing: This is why it's divine

Philadelphia archdiocese looking into sexual harassment claims at seminary

Changing the world requires action, not dreaming, cardinal says

Critics say pope's comments are both 'bold' and 'too little, too late'

At Global Sisters Report:

ICYMI: With a route mapped to Mar-a-Lago, Nuns on the Bus will hit the road again

'Clout that comes with sisterhood': final notes from the 2018 LCWR assembly

Q & A with Sr. Jayne Helmlinger, new president-elect of Leadership Conference of Women Religious

Advertisement

In other news around the web:

Movement encourages Argentines to quit Catholic church

Evangelicals confront sex abuse problems in #MeToo era

Catholics consider withholding donations amid scandals

The Clergy Abuse Crisis Has Cost The Catholic Church $3 Billion

Young people hear the call to rejuvenate ageing Anglican priesthood