A Pilgrim's Companion Psalm

by Ed Hays

The road home, O God, seems long and at times is difficult and painful.

Grant me a holy communion, a companionship with others, as I journey homeward to you.

I live in times of great trial:
an age of change sits at my door.

Without a community with others,

I can so easily lose the way, can be led astray by illusions of holiness, misguided by my ego's desires.

Open my eyes to your precious gift of the Church's Communion of Saints.

'Saint' is a name I would never call myself, but the treasury of my faith teaches me about my holy birthright, that I am part of the web of sacred communion, uniting me with all other home-bound pilgrims and with all who now rejoice at their homecoming in you.

May I feed this day upon the food of this mystic, holy communion with those friends and fellow pilgrims with whom I share this planet Earth, as well as those saints now fully one with you.

May this awareness of my companion journey with all the saints deepen my life of prayer and fertilize my faith in you, my Beloved.

By this communion of holy ones may I be daily challenged to greater compassion and charity as I walk the way of the pilgrim.
