

A Christmas Card Psalm

Ed Hays | Dec. 23, 2009

O you who showered sacred stars on the tiny town of Bethlehem, I thank you for guiding artists' brushes to create cards of beauty, bursting with blessings.

I lift up my heart in gratitude for these beautiful yearly bridges that bind us together in love, we who are often too busy for keeping up with friendship's needs.

My cards of Christmas past are now precious relics, and like the bones of saints they hold great power, and so I hate to bury them or see them burn.

Opened Christmas cards hum to me the hymn of love and teach me the sacrament of correspondence.

Tie about the finger of my mind, Beloved One, a reminder that without reminders friendship fades from the failure to express words of love and appreciation to one another.

May these twelve magical days of Christmas inspire me to celebrate the un-holidays of the year, the feasts of no-occasions, with love notes to friends who are far away.

Sacred season of the twelve days of Christmas, gift me with the magic power to stop the clock, so as to keep God alive within the world.

For if God is love, then God may be found in the mystery of love exchanged.

May I be a holy messenger of that holy mystery.

Prayer action suggestion:

Call or write someone special this week and express your love for them. Then, make a note to call them in a month or two to tell them again.
