

LA and Latino Catholics

Dennis Coday | Apr. 6, 2010 NCR Today

Here is what the U.S. bishops' communications office has to say about the appointment of Archbishop Jose Gomez as coadjutor to Los Angeles archdiocese:

"... the LA appointment is historic in its significance for Latino Catholics in the United States. It's hard to think of a more high-profile acknowledgment of this growing segment of the U.S. Church than having a Latino made bishop of our largest diocese."

Read the full blog entry for some stats on Latino Catholics in the USA: LA and Latino Catholics [1].

Source URL (retrieved on 01/30/2015 - 15:11): <http://ncronline.org/blogs/ncr-today/la-and-latino-catholics>

Links:

[1] <http://usccbmedia.blogspot.com/2010/04/la-and-latino-catholics.html>