

Webathon Meets Goal

Joe Feuerherd | Jun. 26, 2010 NCR Today

We did it. Over the past hour (it's midnight on Friday night), we received more than $200 in online donations. Combine that with Webathon-designated pledges arriving by snail mail and we have gone beyond our $30,000 goal.

Thank you to everyone, more than 700 individual donors, who have shown their support for the independent Catholic journalism ? the news, analysis, and informed opinion you see at NCRonline each day ? NCR provides. We are truly grateful, and truly privileged to serve our readership.
