

USCCB Vice-Presidency: Archbishop Kurtz

Michael Sean Winters | Nov. 16, 2010 Distinctly Catholic

On the third ballot, at which time the bishops were only allowed to vote for the two previous highest vote getters, Archbishop Kurtz of Louisiana was elected Vice-President of the USCCB with 147 votes to Denver Archbishop Chaput's 91.

Source URL (retrieved on 02/01/2015 - 18:04): <http://ncronline.org/blogs/distinctly-catholic/usccb-vice-presidency-archbishop-kurtz>