

Former Guatemala dictator to face massacre charges

Zoe Ryan | May. 23, 2012 NCR Today

From Reuters:

Former Guatemalan dictator Efraim Rios Montt will face a second trial on genocide charges after a judge ruled on Monday he could be prosecuted for ordering a 1982 massacre that left 201 people dead.

Rios Montt, 85, who ruled during a particularly bloody period in 1982 and 1983, is already facing trial on separate charges of genocide and crimes against humanity.
