

Three sisters die in car accident in Mexico

Sr. Rose Pacatte | Jun. 27, 2012 NCR Today

The women religious of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles received sad news Monday from The Office of the Vicars for Religious:

An unfortunate and devastating accident took place last June 15th, 2012 in Guadalajara, Mexico, where 3 members of the Missionaries of Jesus Crucified congregation lost their lives. There were 6 Sisters traveling in the same automobile en route to Selaya, when the accident occurred killing 3 of the them and causing the other 3 serious injuries requiring hospitalization. The 3 sisters that passed away were:

- Sister Lucila Etelvina del Esp'ritu Santo Álvarez Garc'a, General Superior of the Missionaries of Jesus Crucified
- Sister Mar'a Magnolia de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe Santiago Jiménez, Vicar of the Missionaries of Jesus Crucified
- Sister Mar'a Gema de Jesús Castillo Torres, Coordinating council member of the Missionaries of Jesus Crucified

The other 3 Sisters, Clarita Cundafe Sanchez, Guadalupe Romero, and Veronica Frausto, are still hospitalized; the most critical of them is Sr. Clarita.

The Missionaries of Jesus Crucified serve at St. Malachy Parish in south Los Angeles. The sisters have asked to please keep their congregation in your prayers, as they mourn the loss of their leaders.

Here is the news article [1] (in Spanish) from the archdiocese of Guadalajara.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/31/2015 - 07:12): <http://ncronline.org/blogs/ncr-today/three-sisters-die-car-accident-mexico>

Links:

[1] <http://noticias.arquidiocesisgdl.org.mx/2012/06/fallecen-religiosas-de-la-congregacion-misioneras-de-jesus-crucificado>