

Prominent UK evangelical supports same-sex relationships

Dennis Coday | Jan. 16, 2013 NCR Today

The Gleanings blog at Christianity Today reports that "Steve Chalke Stuns British Evangelicals By Coming Out in Support of Same-Sex Relationships."

Steve Chalke, one of the most prominent evangelical leaders in the United Kingdom, has publicly announced his change of belief that monogamous same-sex relationships are not sinful, and makes an argument for why churches should support such relationships in the latest issue of Christianity magazine.
