

+Kurtz Elected President

Michael Sean Winters | Nov. 12, 2013 Distinctly Catholic
Fall bishops' meeting 2013

Archbishop Joseph Kurtz, who served the past three years as Vice President of the USCCB, was elected the President on the first ballot with 125 votes. No other candidate received more than 25 votes.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/31/2015 - 10:32): <http://ncronline.org/blogs/distinctly-catholic/kurtz-elected-president>