

Hypocrisy of the Stinkiest Kind

Michael Sean Winters | Nov. 21, 2013 Distinctly Catholic

One expects a fair amount of hypocrisy when dealing with politicians. But, Congressman Trey Radel takes the cake. Rep. Radel yesterday pled guilty to a charge of possessing cocaine. Earlier this year, Rep. Radel supported legislation [1] that required all recipients of food stamps to go through a drug test. Maybe he was high at the time he voted. Let's hope the voters in Florida are stone sober when they toss him out of office next year.

Source URL (retrieved on 03/03/2015 - 10:45): <http://ncronline.org/blogs/distinctly-catholic/hypocrisy-stinkiest-kind>

Links:

[1] http://www.huffingtonpost.com/2013/11/19/trey-radel-drug-testing_n_4305348.html?ncid=txtlnkushpmsg00000037