

Francis calls for prayers for abducted nuns

NCR Staff | Dec. 4, 2013 The Francis Chronicles

At the end of his General Audience on Wednesday, Pope Francis called on everyone to pray [1] for a group of nuns taken by force from the Greek Orthodox Monastery of Saint Tecla in the ancient Christian town of Maʿlula in Syria.

Most media reports [2] on the kidnapping, including by the government's Sana news agency, speculated the kidnapping was the work of the Al Nusra Front, which the U.S. State Department defines as a terrorist organization linked to al-Qaida. Early reports said 12 nuns were kidnapped.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/25/2015 - 16:07): <http://ncronline.org/blogs/francis-chronicles/francis-calls-prayers-abducted-nuns>

Links:

[1] http://en.radiovaticana.va/news/2013/12/04/pope_calls_for_prayer_for_nuns_kidnapped_in_syria/en1-752530

[2] <http://ncronline.org/news/vatican/syrian-bishop-says-nuns-kidnapping-shocks-frightens-christians>