

O Radiant Dawn

Sisters of the Monastery of Mount St. Scholastica | Dec. 17, 2014 Spiritual Reflections
Advent 2014

O Radiant Dawn, shine your light on those in the darkness of despair and need.

In this season of waiting, so many people are not waiting for holiday gifts or celebrations. They wait for the violence around them to stop, for aid after natural disasters, for return from refugee camps and battlefields and prisons. Even the smallest rays of light that we can provide by our efforts pushes back some of the darkness and, when joined to that of others, may begin to light a path of hope.
