

O God of Quiet, come!

Sisters of the Monastery of Mount St. Scholastica | Dec. 23, 2014 Spiritual Reflections
Advent 2014

O God of Quiet, come! Whisper in our waiting hearts what you ask of us.

Holiday preparations with its many distractions, both interior and exterior, can be challenging in these December days. How do we know what God is asking of us if we constantly surround ourselves with people, to-do lists or the bombardment of 24-hour news, music and endless contacts? Is this connectedness? The need for God's quiet presence is palpable. Come! Help us listen. Help us be quiet. May God's small, still whisper reach our waiting, listening hearts.
