

Pope's quotes: Human trafficking

NCR Staff | May. 28, 2014 | The Francis Chronicles

A quote from Pope Francis:

It is not possible to remain indifferent before the knowledge that human beings are bought and sold like goods! I think of the adoption of children for the extraction of their organs, of women deceived and obliged to prostitute themselves, of workers exploited and denied rights or a voice, and so on. And this is human trafficking. It is precisely on this level that we need to make a good examination of conscience: how many times have we permitted a human being to be seen as an object, to be put on show in order to sell a product or to satisfy an immoral desire? The human person ought never to be sold or bought as if he or she were a commodity. Whoever uses human persons in this way and exploits them, even if indirectly, becomes an accomplice of injustice.

-- Message on the occasion of the annual Lenten Fraternity Campaign in Brazil with the theme of Fraternity and human trafficking, March 5, 2014
