

by Teresa Malcolm

View Author Profile

Join the Conversation

Send your thoughts to Letters to the Editor. Learn more

September 9, 2019

Share on FacebookShare on TwitterEmail to a friendPrint

Our team of copy editors reads and posts most of what you see on the websites for National Catholic Reporter and Global Sisters Report (the NCR project focusing on women religious). The Copy Desk Daily highlights recommended news and opinion articles that have crossed our desks on their way to you.

The stigma attached to having a child at an early age makes life difficult for Kenyan teenagers who get pregnant. At the Annunciation Home Crisis Pregnancy Center, Good Shepherd sisters in Kenya offer safe haven for pregnant girls in crisis.

Fr. Peter Daly continues his ongoing analysis of what is needed to reform the priesthood. With this column, he's confronting causes of clericalism: original sin, institutional dynamics — with more underlying causes saved for his next installment.

Consecrated women and men partner to combat trafficking. They came together recently for a workshop in Nairobi, Kenya, where they shared the successes and heartbreaks of their efforts.

Don't like that pope? Read what he wrote — and read it with an open mind. Michael Sean Winters did that with Popes John Paul II and Benedict XVI and benefited from it, so he encourages the same from Pope Francis' critics today.

Consider the spiritual connections to your impact on the Earth on Season of Creation Daily Day 9: Seeking compassionate simplicity.

Advertisement

*Want to keep updated with the latest news from the National Catholic Reporter?
Sign up here for news updates by email — including one that will send you Copy
Desk Daily every Monday through Friday.*