

Opinion

by Mick Forgey

View Author Profile

Join the Conversation

Send your thoughts to Letters to the Editor. Learn more

December 12, 2019

Share on FacebookShare on TwitterEmail to a friendPrint

Our team of copy editors reads and posts most of what you see on the websites for National Catholic Reporter, Global Sisters Report and EarthBeat. The Copy Desk Daily highlights recommended news and opinion articles that have crossed our desks on their way to you.

Nuns' retreat house, built by Muslim benefactor, signifies interfaith bond:

A Muslim civil engineer built a two-story retreat house for a community of Carmelite nuns in the southern Philippines. He did so for free.

30 years later, Eastern Europeans reflect on post-communist

transformation: Eastern Europe has been remembering the end of communist rule. Citizens enjoy better living and prosperity. And yet, some ponder European stability after the decadeslong East-West divide.

Chicago guidelines raise role, or lack thereof, of eulogies in Catholic

funerals: "Cardinal Blase Cupich of Chicago promulgated revised guidelines for funerals on All Souls' Day," Don Clemmer writes. "The document doesn't exactly break new ground in its recommendations ... but it does put heavy stipulations on where, when and how a eulogy can be given."

In 'Endangered Earth' exhibit, artists confront climate change: A focused, modest exhibition showcases artists' renderings of our ecological plight.

The 25 best prayers of the decade: Caveat from the author: "more of a '25 prayers that brought me closer to God over the past 10 years' list."

Advertisement

*Want to keep updated with the latest news from the National Catholic Reporter?
Sign up here for news updates by email — including one that will send you Copy
Desk Daily every Monday through Friday.*