In this live conversation, the first in a series of four, Soul Seeing editor Michael Leach speaks with NCR columnist Franciscan Fr. Dan Horan about Lenten spirituality.

Background reading:

- In his column on Ash Wednesday, Horan suggests that Catholics go back to basics this Lent, spending time with Scripture, in prayer and caring for neighbors.
- Soul Seeing, which is edited by Michael Leach, is a regular NCR column focused on spirituality and the "peace beyond all understanding." You can read all Soul Seeing columns here.
